Fitzwilliam College Progress in Geography Conference 2017

Programme

10.00 Registration and coffee - Auditorium Foyer

10.30 Welcome
Dr Sara Owen – Admissions Tutor for Arts and Humanities, Fitzwilliam College

Introduction to the Day
Directors of Studies in Geography.

10.45 The Geopolitics of the Arctic
Dr Richard Powell, Fellow and University Lecturer, Department of Geography and Scott Polar Research Institute

11.30 Shameful Subsistence? Food Banking and the Geographies of Emotion during Times of Austerity
Sam Strong, Supervisor of Studies, ESRC-funded doctoral student, Department of Geography

12.15 Discussion session with undergraduates

1.00 Lunch – Upper Hall II; College Tours with undergraduates

2.00 Is Demography Destiny? The Political Economy of Population, Resources and Development in the Twenty First Century
Dr Bhaskar Vira, Fellow and Reader in the Political Economy of Environment and Development, Department of Geography

2.45 Forests and Climate Change
Dr Andrew Hacket-Pain, Bye-Fellow, College Teaching Associate and Director of Studies in Geography

3.30 Studying Geography at Fitzwilliam College: Discussion Session

4.30 Tea - Auditorium Foyer; Conference concludes