

How we use your personal information

-- Applicants for positions in the College

This statement explains how Fitzwilliam College (“we” and “our”) handles and uses information we collect about applicants (“you” and “your”) for jobs. For these purposes, “applicants” is intended to include applicants for staff vacancies, senior membership and College Officer posts. In broad terms, we use your data to manage your application to the College and our subsequent recruitment processes.

When changes are made to this statement, we will publish the updated version on our website at <https://www.fitz.cam.ac.uk/about/official-information/data-protection> and notify you by other communications channels as we deem appropriate or necessary.

The controller for your personal data is Fitzwilliam College, Storey’s Way, Cambridge, CB3 0DG. The person responsible for data protection within the College at the time of issue, and the person who is responsible for monitoring compliance with relevant legislation in relation to the protection of personal information, is the College Data Protection Officer, who is the Bursar, bursar@fitz.cam.ac.uk. The statutory Data Protection Officer for the College is the Office of Intercollegiate Services Ltd (OIS Ltd) [12B King’s Parade, Cambridge; 01223 768745; college.dpo@ois.cam.ac.uk]. The Bursar should be contacted if you have any concerns about how the College is managing your personal data, or if you require advice on how to exercise your rights as outlined in this statement. If you are still dissatisfied after the College’s response, you should contact the statutory Data Protection Officer.

The legal basis for processing your personal data is that it is necessary in order for you to enter into an employment contract with us or become a senior member of the College.

This statement should be read in conjunction with the separate statements for website users and College visitors. These statements are available at <https://www.fitz.cam.ac.uk/about/official-information/data-protection>.

How your data is used by the College

Your data is used by us in the first instance solely for the purposes of considering your suitability for employment and for us to manage our recruitment processes, including our monitoring of equality and diversity within the College.

If you have concerns or queries about any of these purposes, or how we communicate with you, please contact us at the address given above.

The College holds the following personal data relating to you, in line with the purposes above:

- A* personal details, including name, contact details (phone, email, postal);
- B* your application form and/or CV and associated information submitted by you at that time;
- C other data relating to your recruitment (including references we take up as part of the recruitment process, any pre-employment assessment of you, and any assessment of you at an informal or formal interview);
- D any occupational health assessments and/or medical information you have provided, and related work requirements;
- E* evidence of your right to work in the UK (e.g. copies of your passport);

- F* information relating to your age, nationality, gender. Information relating to your religion or beliefs, ethnicity or disability may also be collected for monitoring purposes but will be stored, anonymously, separately from your application;
- G any correspondence relating to the outcome of the recruitment process (either successful or unsuccessful).

Those marked with an * relate to information provided by you. Other data and information is generated by us or, where self-evident, provided by a third party.

We will not access personal data about you from social media sites, unless there is a legitimate interest for us to do so (for example, the role you have applied for has a significant public-facing element to it, or is involved with publicity and presenting us to the general public). Consequently, we do not routinely screen applicants' social media profiles but, if aspects of your social media profile are brought to our attention and give rise to concerns about your suitability for the role in question, we may need to consider them. Our social media guidelines are available at: <http://www.fitz.cam.ac.uk/about/official-information>

For certain posts, we may use the Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS) and Disclosure Scotland to help assess your suitability for certain positions of trust. If this is the case, we will make this clear to you in separate correspondence. Certificate and status check information is only used for this specific purpose, and we comply fully with the DBS code of Practice regarding the correct use, handling, storage, retention and destruction of certificates and certificate information. We recognise that it is a criminal offence to pass this information on to anyone who is not entitled to receive it.

Who we share your data with Information is not shared with other third parties without your written consent. Generally, personal data is not shared outside of the European Economic Area.

If you are successful in your application, we may publish (within College, on our website and in College publications: online, in print and/or web-based media) your name, photograph (if you have provided one for this purpose) and basic biographical information. We will seek your consent before publishing this information.

How long we keep your data

If you are successful in your application, the data is subsequently held as part of your employment record with us. You are encouraged to read our separate statement about personal information for employees, workers and casual workers and contractors at <https://www.fitz.cam.ac.uk/about/official-information/data-protection>

If you are unsuccessful in your application, we retain all data and information for no more than twelve months after the closing date of the application process.

In either case, where the post has required a "resident market test" (needed if the post is open to applicants from outside the European Union), the College will retain the application records of any shortlisted candidates for the duration of the sponsored post and twelve months thereafter.

Your rights

You have the right: to ask us for access to, rectification or erasure of your data; to restrict processing (pending correction or deletion); and to ask for the transfer of your data electronically to a third party (data portability). Some of these rights are not automatic, and we reserve the right to discuss with you why we might not comply with a request from you to exercise them.

Non compliance or complaints

Failure to provide the information reasonably requested of you may result in an automatic disqualification from the recruitment process.

If you have questions or concerns about your personal information, or how it is used, please speak to the relevant College staff involved with your application in the first instance. If you need further guidance, please contact the College Data Protection Officer using the details given above.

You retain the right at all times to lodge a complaint about our management of your personal data with the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
