

Fitzwilliam College COVID community agreement

We want to begin Michaelmas term in a safe and healthy way at Fitzwilliam College. Ensuring the safety and wellbeing of staff and students is our highest priority and we all need to play our part and help each other to achieve this and minimise risk to remain safe and healthy.

It is vital that every member of the College understands that we are in this together and the safety and wellbeing during this pandemic is ultimately the responsibility of us all. The way that we behave has consequences for people immediately affected by it, as well as our collegiate community and the local area – including public services such as the NHS or the police.

We all need to:

- Behave in a way that minimises the risk of infection
- Treat each other with dignity and respect
- Keep up to date with public health guidance and follow it at all times
- Observe the rules that apply in each setting

At Fitz we have a strong community and we all need to continue to support each other as we get used to new measures in place. For example, if you notice that someone has made a mistake and overlooked guidelines, please let them know in a friendly and polite way. Or if someone else reminds you of your own slip, please don't be offended as we're all just trying to keep everyone safe.
