The Chapel is your space: everyone is welcome, irrespective of faith, to all services and activities, or to come into the Chapel for your own quiet reflection.

The Chaplain is here for you: for friendly support and non-judgmental listening. Feel free to drop in to K11b to discuss any matter in confidence.

ACTIVITIES

Chaplain’s Drinks Party
Sunday 2 Oct, 7-9:30pm, Chapel
Start the term with some fizz! Alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks provided at this informal gathering and chance to meet new people in College.

Book Club
Sundays, 12-1pm, Chapel Lawn
Weekly discussion, led by the Chaplain, of a chapter of a topical book addressing ethical issues of our time. Begins Sunday 16 Oct. Contact chaplain@fitz.cam.ac.uk

Thinking Theologically
TBC, Chapel
Explore big questions of life, meaning and faith in discussion led by the Chaplain. This term we will use Graham Tomlin’s recent book ‘Navigating A World of Grace; The Promise of Generous Orthodoxy’ as a guide for our discussions. Contact chaplain@fitz.cam.ac.uk

Wellbeing Conversation
Please contact the Chaplain to arrange a confidential conversation on any matter of concern.

Quiet Hour: 1-2pm
All are welcome to use the Chapel for individual times of reflection, meditation or prayer whenever the Chapel is not otherwise booked. The Chapel is especially set aside for this purpose daily between 1-2pm and is often available at other times.
