About Fitzwilliam

Fitzwilliam College is a special and welcoming community. We combine a passion for academic excellence and enquiry, with a commitment to widening access to higher education.

The College encompasses around 1,000 people including Fellows, staff, undergraduates and postgraduates. In common with all the other 31 colleges of the University of Cambridge, Fitzwilliam is an independent, self-governing institution.

The College enjoys a large seven acre site within 10 minutes cycle ride of all the major faculties and departments. At the heart of our beautiful grounds is a fine Regency house. Most of our award winning architecture dates from the 1960s onwards including a state-of-the-art auditorium and the Olisa Library.

Fitzwilliam began in 1869 as a non-collegiate institution, with the specific purpose of providing a Cambridge education to students who were unable to afford membership of a college. The community became a full college in 1966 and moved to our current site at that time.

Our values

Fitzwilliam's core values have not changed since our creation, these are:

- Community is our foundation, embracing and welcoming diversity in all aspects;
- Supporting excellence, creating a unique space for the sharing of ideas; and
- Concern with our purpose, setting an example to the broader community.

The College has recently started to implement the new College Plan based on these values.
