

Fitzwilliam College

CHINESE UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

The Fitzwilliam College Chinese Undergraduate Bursaries Fund was established in 2019 by a gift from an alumnus who read Engineering at Fitzwilliam College from 2006 to 2009.

Fitzwilliam College will offer up to three Scholarships of £10,000 per year, tenable for up to four years, to undergraduate students of Chinese nationality, educated within the mainland People's Republic of China, who are demonstrably from disadvantaged financial backgrounds. These will be allocated on the basis of academic merit to students who have received an offer of admission.

Offer holders are asked to indicate whether they wish to be considered for this Scholarship. The financial circumstances of candidates are to be assessed by the Ambright Institute of Education and Scientific Research, who will report to the College. A College panel, taking note of the financial report, will award the Scholarships to eligible candidates, primarily on the basis of academic merit.
