

Archaeology Essay Competition 2018

Titles:

1. "Are humans still evolving?"
2. "How can archaeology help understand the origins of social inequality?"
3. "What factors contributed to the success and the demise of past societies?"

Essays should be less than 2500 words long, and contain a list of works consulted and cited at the end. This bibliography is excluded from the word limit, but any footnotes are included. Please ensure that pages are numbered and that your full name is on each page.

Competition rules:

This essay competition is for Lower Sixth Formers. Applicants will be required to enter their details online and to either upload one PDF copy of their essay electronically or post a hard copy to: Admissions Assistant, Fitzwilliam College, Cambridge, CB3 0DG by Tuesday 1 May 2018.

Prizes:

The prize fund is £300 with a first prize of £200. Certificates of merit may be awarded to runners up who have sufficiently impressed the judges. The College reserves the right not to award prizes if there is no entry of sufficient merit. Prizes and certificates will be awarded at the Fitzwilliam College Open Day in July.

For further information about the competition or the Archaeology course, please contact:

Enrico Crema, Director of Studies in Archaeology, Fitzwilliam College

erc62@cam.ac.uk