ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIPS FOR UNDERGRADUATES

Undergraduates who achieve a First Class in University examinations (or equivalent in unclassified examinations) are awarded both a Scholarship and a Prize. Each Scholarship carries a value of £150, except in the case of College Senior Scholarships (value £300).

Prizes are worth a further £150, so that the reward for a First Class Tripos Result is generally £300.

Scholarships are held for the academic year following the award. Scholars are invited to attend the Commemoration Dinner in April, and are also given priority in the room ballot held during the Lent Term.

COLLEGE SENIOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Eligibility

A College Senior Scholarship shall be awarded for a First Class in Finals or equivalent. The value shall be £300 and shall only be paid to those re-admitted, normally in the Michaelmas Term following Graduation, to read for a post-graduate course with the intention of proceeding to a PhD. The Scholarship shall be renewable for two further academic years, subject to an annual report of satisfactory progress. The holder of a College Senior Scholarship shall not be eligible for a 1912 Senior Scholarship. In the case that the holder of a College Senior Scholarship be awarded a named postgraduate scholarship, the award will be honorary. For those who are not undergraduates of the College, a College Senior Scholarship will be awarded to support research, based on merit.

The Scholarships are awarded by the Tutorial Committee on the advice of the Graduate Tutors.

1912 SCHOLARSHIPS

Title

These awards were established in 1912 following an appeal to Fitzwilliam men to provide funds for awards previously given by the Worshipful Company of Leathersellers.

Eligibility

Awards may be made without restriction of subject.

Number of Awards

Not more than five 1912 Scholarships shall be awarded (excluding Senior Scholarships) each year.

BARNES SCHOLARSHIP

Title

The Barnes Scholarships were established in 2012 by a gift from Simon Barnes, who read Natural Sciences at Fitzwilliam between 1987-90 and completed his PhD at the College in 1993.

Method of Payment

The value of a Scholarship for a continuing undergraduate shall be £150. The value of a Senior Scholarship shall be £300 if the recipient is re-admitted to the College to a research degree, or £150 if re-admitted to a taught postgraduate degree. Scholars shall be afforded certain other privileges.

Eligibility

A maximum of four scholarships will be awarded each academic year in recognition of First class results in each Part of the Natural Sciences Tripos. A Scholarship is normally renewable if the recipient achieves a further First Class result.

A Barnes Senior Scholarship shall be awarded to a student achieving a First in Part III of the Natural Sciences Tripos who is re-admitted, normally in the Michaelmas term following graduation, to read for a postgraduate course.

JEANNE-MARIE BOURDEAU MEMORIAL AWARD

Title

The Jeanne-Marie Bourdeau Memorial Award was established in 2001 by a gift from Mr P W Rest who read for the Geography and Economics Triposes 1946-1949, in memory of his wife Jeanne-Marie Bourdeau-Rest.

Value

The capital and income of this expendable fund may be used at the discretion of the Graduate Tutor and Senior Tutor, in accordance with guidelines established by the Tutorial Committee.

E D DAVIES SCHOLARSHIPS

Title

The E D Davies Scholarships are funded by income from the E D Davies Fund established in 1995 by a bequest from Mr E D Davies (BA 1931), who read Geography and History at Fitzwilliam House between 1928 and 1931.

Eligibility

The Scholarships may be awarded to graduates who have been admitted to a course of research.

Number and Value of Awards

Two scholarships may be awarded each year. The value of a Scholarship shall be £1250 per annum.

Tenure

A Scholarship may be held for up to three years subject to satisfactory progress.

GIBSON STUDENTSHIP FOR NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES

Title

The Gibson Studentship is funded by surplus income from gifts made between 1889 and 1896 by Dr Margaret D Gibson, the Oriental and New Testament scholar and widow of Mr J Y Gibson (1826-86), who was a translator of Spanish.

Eligibility

The Studentship may be awarded to a graduate student who has been accepted by the College and the Faculty of Divinity (exceptionally another Faculty) to work for a doctorate in the field of New Testament Studies. Preference will be given to those who name Fitzwilliam as their first choice College.

Value

The value of the Studentship will be £1000 per annum and it may be held (subject to satisfactory progress) for up to three years.

LEATHERSELLERS' GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Title

The Leathersellers' Graduate Scholarships are awarded by the Worshipful Company of Leathersellers.

Method of Payment

Payment is made direct to award-holders by the Company.

Eligibility

The Scholarships shall be open to all home graduates from any British University who have been admitted to a course of research in the Physical or Biological Sciences, Mathematics or Engineering. The Scholarships are designed to supplement funding from other sources.

Number of awards

Three Leathersellers' Graduate Scholarships, one per year, may be awarded.

Value

The value of a Leathersellers Graduate Scholarship shall be £3,000 per annum, for three years. Priority will be given to the holders of such a scholarship in the graduate housing ballot.

ROBERT LETHBRIDGE STUDENTSHIP IN MODERN LANGUAGES

Title

The Robert Lethbridge Studentship in Modern Languages was established in 2013 by donations received in honour of Professor Robert Lethbridge, Fellow (1973-1992), Senior Tutor (1982-1992) and Master of Fitzwilliam College (2005-2013).

Eligibility

The Robert Lethbridge Studentship in Modern Languages shall be awarded to a postgraduate student of the College reading Modern Languages.

Value

The value of the Studentship will be limited only by the funds available.

HIRST PLAYER STUDENTSHIP

The income from the Fund established in memory of Eric Noel Player and Wilfrid Bertram Hirst (both Fitzwilliam Hall 1911-14) shall be used to provide bursaries and studentships for men or women, preferably ordinands, reading for a Degree or a Diploma in Theology.

Candidates must have been admitted or be candidates for admission to membership of the College. Preference will be given to those who either have taken or are intending to take Holy Orders in a Christian Church which is a member of the World Council of Churches.

(a) The names of candidates for studentships shall be proposed either by Tutors of the College or by the Principals of Ridley Hall, Wesley House, Westcott House and Westminster College by the end of Full Easter Term, in any or all of the following categories:

(i) Overseas students who need additional support in order to be able to read for the Theological and Religious Studies Tripos, the Diploma in Theology or the Examination in Theology for the MPhil Degree;

(ii) Candidates for the Diploma in Theology or the Examination in Theology for the MPhil degree who are not supported by a DES or LEA award;

(iii) Candidates for the Theological and Religious Studies Tripos who may not be eligible for support from Church funds in order to read for the Tripos;

(iv) Other deserving candidates for whom a special case may be submitted.

(b) All candidates shall provide a statement of their financial circumstances.

(c) A joint committee, consisting of three members of the Governing Body, and normally the Tutor for Graduate Students, the Tutor for Admissions (Arts) and the Director of Studies in Theology, and the Principals of the Theological Colleges, shall prepare a list of not more than three names by 30 June for submission to the Master and Tutors who shall have power to make the award.

(d) In making an award the Master and Tutors shall attempt so far as may be possible to give priority to candidates for graduate rather than undergraduate courses and they shall also have regard to the desirability of an even distribution of awards among the various theological colleges.

(e) The value of the Award shall be determined from time to time to a maximum of the University and College fees chargeable; a candidate shall be eligible to receive additional funds or an award from other sources to meet the full cost of such fees without being required to vacate the studentship under Regulation 3(f).

(f) A candidate who is awarded the studentship because he is not in receipt of support from other sources to pay his University and College fees, shall vacate it if he subsequently receives such support from other sources. If he vacates it before his course has begun it shall be offered to the next candidate on the list. If he vacates it during an academical year the Master and Tutors shall have power to carry forward the income thereby made available so as to make an additional award in the following year.

(g) Subject to the availability of funds, in exceptional circumstances a grant towards maintenance may be made.

(h) Subject to the availability of funds, normally one award shall be made at a time for two years, except in the case of candidates for the Diploma in Theology when the award shall be for one year.

SHIPLEY STUDENTSHIP

Title

The Shipley Studentship is funded by income from the Shipley Fund established in 1985 by a bequest from Mrs E M C Shipley in memory of her husband Joseph William Shipley (1892-1981) who read Theology at Fitzwilliam House between 1912-1914.

Eligibility

The Shipley Studentship may be awarded to a member of the College who has been admitted to a course of research in the Faculty of Divinity (or exceptionally a course of research on a theological topic in some other Faculty), and shall be tenable for one year only. The Studentship shall normally be awarded to a candidate who is about to begin a course of research at Cambridge, and shall be competitive on the grounds of academic merit.

Number of Awards

One Shipley Studentship may be awarded each year.

Value

The value of the Shipley Studentship shall be £1,250.

PETER WILSON ESTATES GAZETTE FUND

Title

The fund (£400,000) was established in 2013 by Mrs Audrey Wilson in memory of Mr Peter Wilson, owner of the Estates Gazette (1972-1991) and Honorary Fellow and Benefactor of Fitzwilliam College, Cambridge. It was established to encourage expertise in Land Economy that will be put to good use in the wider world in the future.

The income from the fund (but not the capital) is to be used to support postgraduate study in Land Economy (or equivalent subjects) at Fitzwilliam College.

Awards made from the fund shall be known as "Peter Wilson Estates Gazette Scholarships".

The terms of the fund shall not be changed without the explicit agreement of both Fitzwilliam College and Mrs Audrey Wilson, or her legal representatives, whether attorneys or executors (Representative), for so long as it is reasonably possible to identify them.

Regulations

Awards shall be based upon academic merit.

The number and value of individual awards shall be at the discretion of the Tutors, on the recommendations of the Graduate Tutor and Director of Studies in Land Economy, and subject to the following order of priority:

1. Masters students – awards to be at a level of not less than £3,000 per person to be used towards the cost of tuition fees or maintenance during their course of study.
2. PhD students – awards to be at a level of not less than £1,000 per year and spread evenly over the period of study.
3. Undergraduate students in their final year who also demonstrate financial need. Awards of up to £4,000 but normally £3,000, may be used to offset fees or maintenance costs; generally undergraduates would only be expected to benefit where an award will encourage them to proceed on to a Masters' degree.

The names and academic progress of students to whom awards are made shall be advised to Mrs Wilson (or her Representative) and to the authorised officials of the Estates Gazette.

The holders of Peter Wilson Estates Gazette Scholarships may be required to contribute to media coverage promoting the benefits of the Scholarships. Holders will have the opportunity to apply for available internships at the Estates Gazette.

There is to be no conflict with other awards. In the event of other funds being made available for similar purposes in the future, the regulations are to be reviewed in the light of the criteria for other such awards.

These regulations may be amended by the Governing Body of the College should circumstances require, after consultation with Mrs Audrey Wilson or her Representative, and the authorised representative of the Estates Gazette.

PETER WILSON ESTATES GAZETTE FUND

Title

The fund (£400,000) was established in 2013 by Mrs Audrey Wilson in memory of Mr Peter Wilson, owner of the Estates Gazette (1972-1991) and Honorary Fellow and Benefactor of Fitzwilliam College, Cambridge. It was established to encourage expertise in Land Economy that will be put to good use in the wider world in the future.

The income from the fund (but not the capital) is to be used to support postgraduate study in Land Economy (or equivalent subjects) at Fitzwilliam College.

Awards made from the fund shall be known as "Peter Wilson Estates Gazette Scholarships".

The terms of the fund shall not be changed without the explicit agreement of both Fitzwilliam College and Mrs Audrey Wilson, or her legal representatives, whether attorneys or executors (Representative), for so long as it is reasonably possible to identify them.

Regulations

Awards shall be based upon academic merit.

The number and value of individual awards shall be at the discretion of the Tutors, on the recommendations of the Graduate Tutor and Director of Studies in Land Economy, and subject to the following order of priority:

4. Masters students – awards to be at a level of not less than £3,000 per person to be used towards the cost of tuition fees or maintenance during their course of study.
5. PhD students – awards to be at a level of not less than £1,000 per year and spread evenly over the period of study.
6. Undergraduate students in their final year who also demonstrate financial need. Awards of up to £4,000 but normally £3,000, may be used to offset fees or maintenance costs; generally undergraduates would only be expected to benefit where an award will encourage them to proceed on to a Masters' degree.

The names and academic progress of students to whom awards are made shall be advised to Mrs Wilson (or her Representative) and to the authorised officials of the Estates Gazette.

The holders of Peter Wilson Estates Gazette Scholarships may be required to contribute to media coverage promoting the benefits of the Scholarships. Holders will have the opportunity to apply for available internships at the Estates Gazette.

There is to be no conflict with other awards. In the event of other funds being made available for similar purposes in the future, the regulations are to be reviewed in the light of the criteria for other such awards.

These regulations may be amended by the Governing Body of the College should circumstances require, after consultation with Mrs Audrey Wilson or her Representative, and the authorised representative of the Estates Gazette.

The number and value of Rittner Niederste-Hollenberg Awards shall be limited according to the income of the Fund.

SAILBRIDGE SPECIAL PROJECT AWARDS

Title

The Sailbridge Special Project Awards were established in 2016 through a donation from Mr Philip Behenna (Modern and Medieval Languages, 1985–1989) to encourage students to undertake projects of environmental, charitable, intellectual or entrepreneurial value, which will broaden their experience and have a positive impact. The Awards are named in recognition of Mr Behenna's mentors, Lawrence Sail, his teacher at Exeter School, who taught him the power of imagination, and Robert Lethbridge, his supervisor at Fitzwilliam College who inspired him to persevere.

Eligibility

A Sailbridge Special Project Award may be made to any Junior Member of the College with the exception of those in the final year of their course.

Value

The number and value of Sailbridge Special Project Awards made from this expendable fund shall be determined by an awarding panel according to the numbers and quality of the proposals. Any funds not disbursed will be carried over to the following year. Awards are not normally intended to cover the full costs of a project; where appropriate, applicants should demonstrate that they have applied for complementary funding from other sources.

Procedure

If funds are available, awards will be advertised from October each year. Students should apply via the Tutorial Office by the advertised deadlines. Applications should include a summary (in no more than 200 words) of the significance and value of the project, and a high-level bulleted list of budget items (on a single page), showing how the award would be used and indicating any other sources of income for the project.

A shortlist will be agreed by the Tutors and the final selection made by a panel of three assessors: Mr Behenna, the Senior Tutor, and one other Fellow of the College (who should be selected by Mr Behenna and the Tutorial Committee, for a renewable period of three years). Awards may be subject to the provision of additional information, for example evidence of a sensible assessment of the risks attached to a project.

MARK SAVAGE TRAVEL AWARD

Title

The Mark Savage Travel Award is funded by the parents and other close relatives of Mark Edward Graham Savage who was a mathematics student at Fitzwilliam College for the academic year 1999-2000 and who died in a road crash on 1st August 2000.
