Monday 14th March 2016
Gordon Cameron Lecture Theatre, Fitzwilliam College, Cambridge

10.30 am Welcome (Dr Sara Owen, Admissions Tutor for Arts and Humanities at Fitzwilliam College)

10.45 am Introduction to Reading English at Cambridge and to the Admissions Process followed by time for questions (Dr Kasia Boddy and Dr Hero Chalmers, Directors of Studies in English at Fitzwilliam College)

11.15 am Refreshments

11.45 am - 1.00 pm Mini Lectures

- Dr Kasia Boddy, ‘Poetry and Painting: Interconnections’
- Dr Paul Chirico, ‘Did Romanticism Happen?’
- Dr Hero Chalmers, “Shakespeare’s Things: Renaissance Literature and Material Culture”

1.00 pm Lunch and informal tours

2.00 pm Parallel Sessions:

a) Introduction to Practical Criticism at Cambridge including small-group discussions (Dr Boddy, Dr Chalmers and Fitzwilliam English students)

b) Opportunity for Teachers to engage in further Q and A with the Senior Tutor, Dr Paul Chirico

2.50 pm Chance for further discussion over tea and biscuits

3.30 pm Departure